Winter Break On Sunday evening I catch the plane from Edinburgh to Cologne and will return to the parish late on Saturday evening. I am looking forward to visiting the city which in the Cathedral houses the relics of the Three Wise Men and also, in the Jesuit Church houses the remains of Blessed John Duns Scotus. I was reading also that the only painting surviving from the Middle Ages of St. Kentigern (Mungo), the patron of our diocese, is also to be found in the Cathedral. An hour or so away is the Shrine of the Mother Thrice Admirable at Schoenstat. This is close to the city of Koblenz which, like Cumbernauld, has the meaning of the meeting of the waters as the two largest rivers in Germany, the Rhine and the Mosel meet at that point. I have to confess, however, I am not sure what waters meet at Cumbernauld!

I am returning via London where, on Saturday, I will celebrate the baptism of the latest addition to the family, Patrick Michael Silk Brannan at the Church of St. Saviour's, Lewisham.

his Sunday night we will welcome Fr. Willie Mc Mahon, St. Anne's, Glasgow and next Saturday evening, Fr. Joe Sullivan, St. Philips, Glasgow. During the week Fr. Willie Brandon of the SMA Fathers, Dunblane will cover Tuesday & Wednesday and the Holy Ghost Fathers, Carfin the remainder.
