Parish Ecumenical Service

At the invitation of Rev. Joyce Keyes and the community of the Church of Scotland, Abronhill, we are invited to join with them for an hour of prayer and praise, tonight Sunday 19th June. We begin with a cup of tea and chat at 6.30pm and will conclude about 7.45/8pm. Christian Unity is fundamental to the life and mission of the Catholic Church. To be Catholic is to be ecumenical.
Faith and Unity are gifts from God. The divisions in the Church of Christ are a grave obstacle to the spread of the Gospel. Do not leave it to someone else. Reach out tonight to your brothers and sisters in Christ. Tear down the walls of sin and division

Church Renovations The flooding on 8th June caused damage to the ceiling and carpeting which, fortunately, is covered by the insurance although we will have to pay the first £500.

This will cover new floor coverings, the replacement of ceiling tiles and the repainting of the ceiling of the church. In the course of this work the remaining lights will be replaced with the high intensity low energy light fittings. This work will take a little time so we will have to be patient until it is all completed

Gift Aid Amount received from tax repayment covering up to 3rd April 2011 is £4,114.31. Well done, all Gift Aiders! If you are fortunate enough to be able to pay tax, then sign the pledge and get some of it for the parish

Proposed New Entrance to the School from Almond Road Since our property abuts onto Almond Road we have been consulted by the Council.
The Council have made no mention of any possible implications for the use by parents of the church car park and we, as a parish, have not given any such permission.
For this reason I have made no response, on our behalf, to the consultation. If you have any views on the proposal please let me know. The period of consultation ends on 22nd June
