Thanks Sorry that, once again, my weak flesh has "put you to the test". Thank you for your patience, understanding and prayers. I simply seem to have an endemic virus that kicks in whenever I am tired or overworked. It attacks the throat and finally clogs up the respiratory system and whilst "the spirit is willing" the flesh will not cooperate. By the prayers of his Blessed Mother the Good Lord has "raised me up" and I am now, I hope, enjoying World Youth Day in Madrid. Your support has been tremendous. We will pray for you all. God bless,

Fr. Joe McAuley

The New Translation - The Gloria and the Creed

We will also notice some changes in the Gloria and the Creed. In fact, there is not a great deal of change in the new words that we will pray so we will have to be careful that we don't slip into the old texts! The first lines of the Gloria itself echo the angels' message to the shepherds, announcing the birth of Christ (Luke 2:14). Because of these changes, new music is being written so that we will be able to sing the new translation, too. When it comes to the Creed we will notice the first change immediately - 'I believe', not, 'We believe'. We have become used to praying the Creed all together as a parish. The trouble is, when we say 'we believe' it could suggest that between us all we believe everything being said. It is not clear that we all believe everything that is being said. To say 'I believe' makes it quite clear that each one of us believes everything we are saying. www.romanmissalscotland.org.uk

The Annual National Pilgrimage to Carfin

will be held on Sunday 4th Sept. The pilgrimage is in honour of St. John Ogilvie. The chief concelebrant is the Cardinal, Archbishop of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, with the preacher being Rev. Deacon James Aitken, who is the Director of the Conforti Centre in Coatbridge and whose ministry during the season is at the Grotto in Carfin. The reason for the change of preacher this year is explained in a letter from Bishop Logan which explains that this year at Carfin on the occasion of the National Pilgrimage we will be celebrating the 25th anniversary of the re-introduction of the Permanent Diaconate in Scotland. The Mass will be celebrated around the altar erected near the statue of John Paul II. The grotto has never looked so beautiful in years. A new St. Francis Xavier Centre has been built at a cost of £1,000,000. That Centre will be available for all who might wish to use its facilities
