Mass of Healing next Tues. 22nd May at 7.30pm with the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Suffering is a special vocation within the life of the Church and Christ has left us a special sacrament to heal and strengthen all those whose health is seriously impaired by bodily or mental illness. In preparation it is recommended that we first receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Both of these sacraments are grouped in the Catechism under the heading of 'sacraments of healing'. It is an opportunity for us to be with our sick brethren and support them with our prayers

RIP On Saturday we celebrated the funeral rites for James Craig, Maple Court. 'Jimmy' as he was known to us, was a wonderful example of Christian Faith. The depth of a life lived in his service of God was manifested during almost 50 years of marriage, by his devotion to his wife and family, in his service to others, especially through the Scout movement, by his heroic fortitude during his illness and by his in his joy in his work and in his personal relationships. May he rest in peace and may his beloved wife, Rena, and his family enjoy the consolation of knowing that he is at peace with the Lord. May he rest in peace. Amen.

The Year of Faith In preparation, the Holy Father has encouraged us to read the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Copies of the abbreviated version at £2 available together with copies of the Holy Father's letter: Porta Fidei (in English!) at the CTS stall.

Ascension Day is celebrated in Scotland this Thursday and is a Holiday of Obligation.
