Olive Aid

Would you like to help the persecuted Christians in the Holy Land? And at the same time consider a little bit of Bethlehem your own? Thanks to OliveAid you can do just that. It allows each parish/sponsor an olive grove (for as little as £25 per tree) which will grow in the land of Christ's birth and at the same time help provide employment and educational opportunities to the people of the Holy Land. For more information see the leaflet on the notice board or visit the website at www.oliveaid.com

Fairtrade Fortnight:

February 27th – March 11th

2012: Fairtrade Fortnight takes place every year at this time. It aims to raise awareness of the importance of fair and just principles in trade, so that workers get a good price for their goods and services. Churches are key supporters of Fairtrade, making a real difference to the lives people in the developing world. This year the theme is 'taking a step' – a small one like changing to Fairtrade tea yourself, or a big step such as getting your whole workplace or church to do it. More information on Fairtrade Fortnight at: <http://step.fairtrade.org.uk/>

She received him into her arms and pressed him to her bosom. The statue of the Pieta has now been beautifully restored as a Votive Offering to Our Lady of Mental Peace for all those who suffer from mental illnesses. The donor wishes to remain anonymous.

Deanery Station Mass for

Lent The Archbishop expresses his regrets that this Mass has been arranged for this Friday when we are hosting the Ecumenical Service for the World Day of Prayer> He warmly encourages us to support this most important event in the life of the parish and the local Church. Unfortunately I only learned of this arrangement at the Deanery Meeting on Monday. and it was too late to re-arrange the Mass.
