The Novena in honour of the Divine Mercy

JESUS I TRUST IN YOU!

The Novena will conclude this Sunday with Scripture Readings, reflection on the Divine Mercy, the recitation of the Chaplet, blessing of the Sacred Image, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Confessions and Evening Prayer & Benediction

"Divine Mercy reaches human beings through the heart of Christ crucified: "My daughter, say that I am love and mercy personified",

Jesus will ask Sr. Faustina (Diary, p. 374).

Christ pours out this mercy on humanity through the sending of the Spirit who, in the Trinity, is the Person-Love.

And is not mercy love's "second name" understood in its deepest and most tender aspect, in its ability to take upon itself the burden of any need and, especially, in its immense capacity for forgiveness?"

The Year of Faith - Catechesis on the Eucharist.

At the suggestion of the PPC, we will have a series of reflections based on the Catechism of the Catholic Church to help us grow in our understanding of the central mystery of our faith. Each session will last one hour. The series begins Tues. at 7.30pm.

Mass and Prayer Vigil for Vocations to the Priesthood and the Consecrated Life on Friday 19 April from 7-9.00pm in Our Lady of Lourdes, Cardonald. The Holy Father's theme for 2013 is: "Vocations, as a sign of hope founded on faith". This Vigil is organised on behalf of the Archdiocese of Glasgow by the Glasgow Serra Club whose mission is to promote vocations to the priesthood. It will take place just before Vocations Sunday. The evening begins with a Concelebrated Mass for Vocations, followed by "Adoration for Vocations" inaugurated by Pope John Paul II, ending with Benediction and Night prayer by 9.00pm. There will two presentations during the evening on the Holy Father's theme for the 50th World Day of Prayer for Vocations. If you would like to participate and need a lift, can you please sign up in the porch.

The Easter Memorial Service for the Dead at Eastfield Cemetery is next Sunday 14th April at 3pm.

Holy Father's Prayer intentions for April:

Liturgy, Source of Life. That the public, prayerful celebration of faith may give life to the faithful.

Mission Churches. That mission churches may be signs and instruments of hope and resurrection.

This week's Second Collection is the Annual Missionary Appeal on behalf of the Missionary Sisters of St. Columban

The Columban Sisters were founded in Ireland in 1924. They came into existence in response to a call to help the people of China, especially the women and children.

This call was heard by many women among them Frances Moloney, a young widow searching for a way of life that would make a difference to the most needy.

On 1st. February 1922, the first group of women came together in a farmhouse in Cahiracon, beside the River Shannon in Co Clare, Ireland, to begin their training as missionary Sisters. Thus began the Congregation of the Missionary Sisters of St. Columban.

Among that pioneering group were: Frances Moloney, Nora Collins, Brigid McSweeney, Mary McKey, Elizabeth Walsh all from Ireland and Frances Mapleback who had travelled all the way from Australia to join the newly founded congregation. Soon others, fired by the vision, joined the community and four years later a group was ready for the long journey that would take them to China..... a journey which continues today.
