Hymn to Our Lady of Aberdeen

Our Lady of Good Succour, we raise our thoughts to thee, where the Don flows down the valley to greet the silver Dee.

Help us to foster bravely, amid this beautiful scene, a faith both deep and loving,

Our Lady of Aberdeen.

Our Lady of Good Succour, in the country saints have trod Saint John the brave Confessor laid down his life for God; with the zeal of great Columba and Margaret, saint and queen, inspire anew thy children, Our Lady of Aberdeen.

Our Lady of Good Succour, may the love of God enfold our people, and surround them with gifts of grace untold.

May a brighter dawn be breaking, and a fairer hope be seen for our city and our nation, Our Lady of Aberdeen.

Our Lady of Good Succour, once by this comely shore men looked to thy protection and favours would implore.

To serve thy Son still guide us, O patroness serene;

for Scotland is thy kingdom, Our Lady of Aberdeen.

Please pray for

RIP: Linda Mc Nulty; Anne O'Hare, 107 Birch Road, Abronhill. We extend our prayers and deepest sympathies to her husband Terry and to her children - John Paul, Terence and Danielle. May she rest in peace.

FAMILY NIGHT- 27TH JULY

2013 The Social Committee has organised a family night on Sat. 27th July. Music, fun and games for all the family, whatever your age! Entry is free, bring your own bottle and there will be a tuck shop for the kids. Tickets will be limited, so if you would like to come along, please let Billy McAuley, Liz Hayes, Eileen Forsyth or Karen Gallagher know how many you would like, or alternatively, sign up on the sheet at the back of church.

Action of Churches Together in Scotland: Books for Children in South Africa -The United Nations has designated 18th July, as Nelson Mandela International Day, when people throughout the world are encouraged to give 67 minutes of voluntary service to the community to help change the world for the better.

Can YOU use your 67 minutes to sort out children's books to be sent to school libraries in Nelson Mandela's home Province of Eastern Cape.

Children's books of all kinds, in English. Story books or factual books, for all ages from pre-school to teenagers, are welcome -

They must be in good condition, please. Factual books should not be too out of date.

Any help with the cost of shipping very welcome. £3.50 each container of onethousand books.

Enquiries to ACTSA Scotland, 52, St. Enoch Square, Glasgow G1 4AA or contact John.Nelson@actsascotland.org.uk <http://www.actsascotland.org.uk/> (Please don't bring books to this unstaffed office - Contact us first.)

Rio de Janeiro - 2013 "My hopes for the pilgrimage to Rio are for myself and our little group is to get there safely, that we embrace the culture and enjoy ourselves. I hope that the journey strengthens our faith and that I don't let our little community of St Lucy's down and that I embrace meeting new people." Elizabeth Mc Fadden

SEA SUNDAY

We pray for all those who live and work at sea. Many of us have never stopped to consider how important seafarers are to our standard of living. Without them we would not have most of the items we use in our everyday lives. Many are unable to practise their faith due to long periods away from home, whilst others are denied basic rights and working conditions that we take for granted.

Pro-Life Mass Wed. 17th July, at 7.30pm. Our Lady of Consolation, Inglefield St, Govanhill, G42 7PZ.
