APPEAL FOR THE PHILIPPINES

This Sunday the second collection, which should be for the parish, will go to SCIAF to help the people of the Philippines. The poor people of this very Catholic country are coping with their sufferings with tremendous dignity and great faith. Please do all you can to help them with your prayers and your charity. The Missio Scotland web site has special prayers which you might find helpful. http://www.missionmattersscotland.org/uploads/doc_18030914112013_Prayers_for_the_People_of_the_Philippines.pdf

It would be very nice if we could have a good turnout to support our children during this Year of Faith as they take this further step in their Christian Initiation. There will be a 'bite to eat' in the hall afterwards and all are most welcome.

Consultation in Preparation for the Synod of Bishops: This is open until 10th December and we are all encouraged to take part. Printed copies of the areas of consultation are available in the porch or go online at www.surveymonkey.com/s/RCAGsynodconsult

Saturday is the Solemnity of St. Andrew, Principal Patron of Scotland. To enable as many as possible of us to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for our country, there will also be a Vigil Mass on Friday at 7pm.
