Parish Outing to Schoenstatt:

There is a bus going to Schoenstatt at Clachan of Campsie on Tuesday for a "Fund Day" with a spiritual spice. You are welcome to come along. The cost is £5 or £7 for a family and it is open to everyone. Children from P4 upwards can come along unaccompanied provided they have a 'permission slip' which can be obtained from the sacristy after Mass. Pray the sun shines. Meet at 9.30am for morning Mass and then depart from the car-park by bus returning at 4.30pm.

PVG CHECKS Margaret Brown will be in the parish on MONDAY 12th MAY from 7pm-9pm to ID PVG forms. Anyone who cannot manage into Clyde St. can come along with completed PVG forms and all relevant paperwork. If anyone requires a PVG form, please contact Kate Murphy, 01236 592107. Appointment with Jillian Whalley at Clyde St. 0141 226 5898.

Deanery Meeting on Tuesday

6th May at St Dominic's Church hall at 7.30pm to discuss the next phase of the consultation regarding the consolidation of the parishes of the Archdiocese. I will participate along with John Mc Kenna, Chair, and Elisha Fisher, Secretary representing the Parish Pastoral Council. Our grateful thanks to the Parish Social committee for providing such a welcome tea after what proved to be a very long meeting last Tuesday. Whilst the meeting did not achieve what we as a PPC had hoped, we hope and pray that it will prove useful in the long run.

Scottish Catholic Observer this week

- Canonisations - reports and reflections.
- Bishop Toal named as new Bishop of Motherwell.
- Widespread opposition to school merger in Glasgow
- England's Education Bishop mourns death of teacher stabbed at school.

SRED Celebration Mass: 25 years in Cumbernauld. St Joseph's, 9th May, 7pm. All welcome. Contact Irene 731706 or Mary 730808.

The Special Needs Club has fortnightly meetings in our own hall from 7.30-9.30pm on Wednesdays. To make this a successful club, we require a number of new helpers to engage with members doing various activities and having fun at the same time. No special talent required. Why not think about it and come along Wed. 7th and/or 21st May. No commitment! If you decide to come along and be one of the helpers, a PVG check will be done. Contact Liz 727700 or Eileen 614164.

Vigil for Vocations, Fri. 9th May, St James the Great, Crookston, 7pm. Glasgow Serra extends an invitation to all the people of the parishes of our deanery to spend some time praying for an increase in vocations to the Priesthood & Consecrated life. Begins with Mass, celebrated by Archbishop Tartaglia and "Adoration for Vocations" with a presentation by Fr. John Sweeney on the Holy Father's theme "The world day of prayer for vocations." Benediction and Night Prayer, 9pm.

Friday, 9th May Mass in the parish will be at 9.15am NOT 9.30am.

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations next Sunday, 11th May is familiarly known as "Good Shepherd Sunday". We will be celebrating the Parish First Communion over the next two Sundays. Through our baptism each one of us is called to 'care for the sheep' in a particular way. Please pray earnestly for the children and their families. Our children are our hope and our future. May God bless them all. Your prayers are important.
